Inquiry Questions:

1. What are the potential chokepoints/ vulnerabilities in your workplace that could heighten the impact of the strike?
2. How can the strike spread to involve other workers (or students, patients, or the working class more generally) by exercising workers' power?
3. What additional information do you need to make your action more effective? (e.g., union/non-union, immigrant/native-born, labor law, etc.?)
